

Each One Counts!

Ready Steady Cook

Senior Students at PAS started off with a great Ready, Steady, Cook Challenge on Friday 5 February. Student participation was excellent. The winner was Credence Nuku, who received the first prize for being creative, on task and cleaning up on time.

Lifesize Art
